September 11, 10:00 am Mingling of Waters Presented by Ceile Hartleib

We begin our church year with our annual Mingling of Waters Ceremony. Please remember to bring water from your summer travels, from the Mississippi or from your tap, to this service of reunion and communion.

We will each pour our water into a communal bowl to represent our gathering together again to begin our new church year and share stories of our summer travels and adventures. We will also reaffirm our UU Principles at this service.

Ceile is a long time Groveland Fellowship member and is currently serving as president.

September 18, 10:00 am How to Tame Your Wandering Mind

TED Talk by Dr. Amishi Jha
Zoom Service

Moderator: Huron Smith

Amishi Jha studies how we pay attention: the process by which our brain decides what's important out of the constant stream of information it receives. Both external distractions (like stress) and internal ones (like mind-wandering) diminish our attention's power. "Pay attention to your attention," Jha says.

Dr. Amishi Jha is a professor of psychology at the University of Miami, and serves as the Director of Contemplative Neuroscience for Mindfulness.

September 25, 10:00 am Generative Conversations in Congregations Presented by Rev. Phillip Lund Moderator: Rose Dorer

How do we create spaces for deep listening? Phil Lund discusses his four-part approach: 1) Create safe, sacred space, 2) Practice holy listening: Slow, silent and with a simple frame of mind, 3) Honor the silence and 4) Invite wisdom.

Rev. Lund has almost twenty years of experience serving congregations in the areas of faith formation and spiritual growth,

Looking Ahead...

October 2, 10:00 am

Turnout: Making Minnesota the State that Votes

Presented by Lori Sturdevant

Moderator: Sara Leiste

Minnesota has long been a leader among the 50 United States in voter participation and turnout. An effective government and enviable quality of life have been the result. How that advantage came about is described in the 2020 book "Turnout:

Making Minnesota the State that Votes," by Joan Anderson Grove with Lori Sturdevant. Sturdevant will be with us to talk about that book and its lessons for today, as ready access to the ballot is being challenged in many parts of this country.

Lori Sturdevant is a retired editorial writer and columnist for the Minneapolis Star Tribune who has spent more than forty years covering Minnesota government and politics. A three-time Minnesota Book Award winner, she is the author, co-author, or editor of twelve books about notable Minnesotans. Most recently, she co-authored "Turnout: Making Minnesota the State that Votes" (Minnesota Historical Society Press, 2020). A native of Dell Rapids, S.D., she is a life trustee of the Board of Trustees of her alma mater Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Sturdevant lives in St. Paul with her husband, Martin Vos. They have three grown children.
